A Publication for the Members of First Nebraska Credit Union

From the President

A Big Thanks to Our Board/Committee Members

With our annual meeting coming up, I want to share with you a bit about our great Board of Directors and Supervisory Committee members who serve as volunteers for the credit union. These individuals are all committed to the credit union movement and our financial well-being, which is demonstrated by their dedication and years of service! I've had the great opportunity to work with our volunteers for the past 20 years. They are always very supportive of credit union initiatives to serve our membership better. They are careful to make decisions for the long-term, in order to provide better benefits for our members and staff.

Together they bring a wealth of years of experience and all have a common purpose and goal in mind...our members!

Recent changes to our Board/Committee include:

Delores Hogan retired from the Board of Directors in December 2020, after 34 years of volunteer service. Delores worked for Physician's Mutual Credit Union for 31 years, before retiring in 2000. She became a Board member after Physician's Mutual Credit Union merged with First Nebraska in 1986.

Rich Hood retired from the Supervisory Committee in September 2020, after 25 years of volunteer service. Rich was a teacher and coach for OPS before retiring after 33 years. He also served as a volunteer for several education boards over the years.

We sincerely thank Delores and Rich for their long-term commitment to FNCU! We wish them the very best!

We also want to introduce our newest members of the Supervisory Committee.

Cassandra Marisett-Banks joined the Supervisory Committee in 2019, and brings with her knowledge and experience from over 10 years of management in working with organizations involved in community and youth outreach. She has been an active volunteer earning several honors and awards; most recently receiving the National Coalition of 100 Black Women's Millennial Leader of the Year Award in 2018.

William (Bill) Burns was appointed in December 2020. He has worked in the appraisal business since 2004, and prior to that worked in the insurance industry. Bill has been a long-time volunteer serving on other boards, participating in many community service projects, and volunteering for local church and sporting events.

We welcome them to our team!

Sincerely,

Ann M. Loftis, President/CEO

RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS

This year, we celebrated Random Acts of Kindness Day (Feb. 17) by spreading some kindness to three of our partner companies (we call them Select Employee Groups).

We visited Builders Supply (Omaha), Duncan Aviation (Lincoln), and Rotella’s Italian Bakery (Omaha).

At each company, we surprised two employees with $50 gift cards and goodies. At Builders Supply, recipients were Paul and Kathy; at Duncan Aviation, recipients were Todd and Lizzie; and at Rotella’s Italian Bakery, recipients were Mary and Helena!

We don’t know who had more fun – us or them!

A bit about our Select Employee Groups

Our modern-day FNCU came about when two credit unions, “First Nebraska Credit Union” and “Educators Credit Union” merged. “First Nebraska” was built upon local businesses who provided our credit union as a benefit to their employees. We continue to serve those businesses and their employees. We have also merged with a handful of other credit unions, and serve those fields of membership, as well.
