1. E-SIGNATURE AND ELECTRONIC DISCLOSURES AGREEMENT

THIS DISCLOSURE CONTAINS IMPORTANT INFORMATION THAT YOU ARE ENTITLED TO RECEIVE BEFORE YOU CONSENT TO RECEIVE ELECTRONIC DISCLOSURES AND TO TRANSACT BUSINESS WITH US ELECTRONICALLY VIA ONLINE OR MOBILE BANKING.

You are signing up to use FNCU's Digital Banking Services. This E-Signature and Electronic Disclosures Agreement ("E-Sign Agreement") applies to all communications, documents, disclosures and electronic signatures related to the products, services and transfers offered or accessible through the Service offered by FNCU for all cardholders, authorized users, account owners, account signers, applicants, and any other person using these Services as a Sender or Recipient or registering to use these Services.

a) Agreement to Conduct Transactions by Electronic Means

You agree to conduct the transfers offered through the Service by electronic means and acknowledge that all documents, disclosures, forms and other information related to such transactions will be provided to you through a mobile or web-based electronic interface or email. Each time you use this Service and submit information to FNCU you agree to the electronic access, receipt and acceptance of documents, disclosures and forms. You may not use this Service unless you agree to receive documents by electronic means.

You further agree that you intend to electronically contract with us for the Service and that all transactions completed through this Service will result in valid and legally binding agreements. You also agree that you have adequate access to a computer or mobile device with sufficient internet connectivity to conduct these transactions online. You acknowledge that you meet the hardware and software requirements to access this Service as described below.

b) Agreement to Use Electronic Signatures

By clicking the Enroll button you are electronically signing this E-Sign Agreement and the Digital Agreement related to the Services. You specifically agree that any electronic signatures that you provide through this online process are valid and enforceable as your legal signature. You acknowledge that these electronic signatures will legally bind you to the terms and conditions contained in the E-Sign Agreement and Digital Agreement documents just as if you had physically signed the same documents with a pen.

c) Agreement to Receive Disclosures Electronically

You agree to receive all legal and regulatory notices, disclosures and other communications associated with your registration or use of this Service through electronic means including web-based electronic interface, mobile phone interface or email.

d) Availability of Printed Copies

We recommend that you print and retain copies of any of the E-Sign Agreement and Digital Agreement, or other related documents from your computer, mobile device or smart phone associated with all transactions utilizing the Service. There is no charge for you to download and print these documents.

You must have a device that uses a supported version of one of the following browsers: Internet Explorer, Edge, Firefox, Chrome, or Safari. You may also use a mobile phone application developed for these Services if your mobile phone supports it. We may not support some older web browsers or mobile device systems, so if you are using an outdated version, you may need to update it in order to access Online or Mobile Banking Services. You are responsible for installation, maintenance, and operation of devices used to access this Service FNCU is not responsible for errors, failures, or malfunctions of any device used or attempted to be used for access to this Service. FNCU is also not responsible for viruses or related problems associated with use of these online systems.

2. ONLINE AND MOBILE BANKING GENERAL PROVISIONS

Through Online Banking, you can manage eligible accounts from your home or office on a personal computer or mobile device. Online/Mobile Banking can be used to conduct any of the following "Online Financial Services":

a) Transactions available.

You may use your Online and/or Mobile Banking services to perform the following transactions:

- Obtain balances and transaction histories on all eligible accounts
- Transfer money between eligible accounts (The number of transfers you can make from an account is limited as described in the applicable account agreement. In addition, if a hold is placed on any funds deposited in an eligible account, you may not transfer the portion of funds being held until that hold expires);
- Transfer money to make loan payments;
- Advance funds from a Line of Credit;
- Re-order checks;
- View e-Statements; and
- Pay bills (Bill Pay) to any merchant, financial institution or an individual with an U.S. address.

When setting up a transfer between credit union accounts, your transfer will be attempted on the day you request. If you fail to have the necessary funds in your specific account to complete the transfer, the transfer will fail and attempt every day in the future until either: you have enough funds to complete the transfer, you stop the transfer, or put the transfer on hold.

FNCU may, from time to time, introduce new Online Financial Services. By using those services when they become available, you agree to be bound by the terms contained in this Agreement, and its subsequent amendments.

b) Assessing the Service.

When you complete the Online or Mobile Banking enrollment process, you will establish a User ID, password, confidence word and security questions. You will use the same User ID and password to access the Online and Mobile Banking product. Each time you access the Service, you will be asked to enter your User ID, password, confidence word and/or answer one of three pre-answered challenge questions (case sensitive). The correct responses will give you access to the Service. If the incorrect password or answer to a challenge question is entered three times, your account will become locked out. If you get locked out and need your password reset, you will need to contact FNCU for assistance.

c) Hours & Availability

Digital Services are generally available 7 days per week, 24 hours per day, but at certain times some or all elements of the Digital Services may be unavailable due to system maintenance or malfunctions. FNCU will make reasonable efforts to notify you in advance of service unavailability. However, FNCU is in no way liable for the unavailability of the system or and damage that may result from system unavailability.

d) Password and Challenge Questions

Your password, confidence work and/or answering one of three pre-answered questions will give you access to Institution accounts and services via Online Banking. FNCU is entitled to act on any instructions it receives using your password and challenge question answers. For security purposes, it is recommended that you memorize your password and answers to challenge questions (case sensitive), do not write them down. We also recommend that you change your password regularly to try and avoid misappropriation by a third party. Your password and answers to challenge questions can be changed at our Online Banking site. You are responsible for keeping your password, challenge question answers, and account data confidential. When you give someone your password and/or answers to challenge questions, you are authorizing that person to use Online Banking and the Online Financial Services. You are responsible for all transactions performed using your password and challenge question answers, even if you did not intend to authorize them. In addition, fraudulent transactions initiated using your password and challenge question answers will be charged against your account(s).

d) Restrictions

You may not appropriate any information or material that violates any copyright, trademark or other proprietary or intellectual property rights of any person or entity while using the Online Banking or Online Financial Services. You may not gain, or attempt to gain, access to any Online Banking and/or Online Financial Service server, network or data not specifically permitted to you by Institution or its suppliers, and you must not include any obscene, libelous, scandalous or defamatory content in any communications with Institution or its suppliers.

e) Fees

There is currently no fee for Online or Mobile Banking. Text, data and other wireless carrier charges may apply when using a mobile device. You would be notified by email, account statement, mailing, and/or Online Banking log on screen at least 30 days prior to any fees no longer being waived for this service. For Bill Payment fees see "Bill Payment Service / Fees" below.

f) Exporting to Quicken or Money (versions 2005 or newer)

Due to added requirements and costs to use newer versions of Quicken and/or Money, FNCU has chosen not to participate in these programs. Since we offer this service free to the membership, the extra costs to maintain a system able to communicate with these programs would force us to charge a price for the product we do not see as beneficial to FNCU or its membership. These software companies have created this costly issue and many financial institutions have taken the stance our credit union has. If you are using a version of these products older than the 2005 versions, you are still able to download your data to their software.

- a) Bill payments will be sent to the payee either electronically or by paper check mailed to the payee via the U.S. Postal Service. The choice of electronic or paper check is solely at the discretion of Bill Pay Service. Checks, electronic payments, and withdrawal orders of any kind can be drawn on your Account in any order. You should be aware that other transactions (such as ATM, telephone banking, on-line transfers or in-branch withdrawals) may affect the amount of funds available to make your payment.
- b) When you schedule a bill payment transaction, you authorize FNCU to reduce the Account balance accordingly. If the available balance in the Account is not sufficient to make payments you have authorized, FNCU may either refuse to pay the item or make the payment and thereby overdraw the account. In either event, you are responsible for any insufficient funds and overdraft charges that may be imposed, as stated in the FNCU's fee and disclosure statements. FNCU reserves the right to refuse to honor payment requests that may reasonably appear to be fraudulent or erroneous.
- c) When a bill payment is scheduled, an estimated delivery date is given, based on the method of delivery being used to make the payment. However, payments should be scheduled at least five (5) business days before the business day on which a bill payment is due to ensure that Bill Pay Service has sufficient time to process and deliver the payment. Bill Pay Service or FNCU is not responsible for payment delivery delays caused by the U.S. Postal Service or for payment processing delays after the payee has received the payment. Any charges imposed as a result of your failure to transmit bill payment transactions at least five (5) business days before a payment is due are your responsibility. The Bill Pay Service or FNCU is not responsible for late charges, finance charges, interest, indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages related to the late payment.
- d) Bill Pay Service may be used to authorize automatic recurring bill payments of repetitive bills. You may schedule recurring payments to be automatically initiated for a fixed amount on a weekly, biweekly, monthly, quarterly or annual basis. The day on which the payment is to be sent is referred to as the "Date/Recurrence." If the payment date/recurrence is scheduled for a non-business day, it will be processed on the prior business day.

3. e-STATEMENTS AND e-NOTICES

The e-Statement Service and e-Notice Service allows for the secure delivery of the electronic version of account documents. To receive e-Statements, you will need to agree to and receive a separate disclosure with the full terms and conditions (Electronic Delivery Disclosure and Consent) of e-Statement Services.

Bill Payments for alimony, child support, taxes, government fees, or court ordered payments are not always accepted. You can make these payments, but Bill Pay Service does not guarantee that it will be accepted or posted in a timely fashion. You must do so at your own risk.

ACH, Transfers, Person-to-Person, and other Electronic Payments

You may make other electronic payments through Bill Pay Service to any business, person or professional. Bill Pay Service or FNCU reserves the right to refuse to accept any e-PAYMENT transaction.

- e) e-Payments will be sent to the payee either electronically via Automated Clearing House or by some other electronic delivery method. The choice of delivery method is solely at the discretion of Bill Pay Service. Checks, electronic payments, withdrawal tickets or instruments can be drawn on your Account in any order. You should be aware that other transactions (such as ATM, telephone banking, on-line transfers or in-branch withdrawals) may affect your Account Balances
- f) When you schedule an e-Payment transaction, you authorize FNCU to reduce the Account balance accordingly. If the available balance in the Account is not sufficient to make payments you have authorized, FNCU may either refuse to pay the item or make the payment and thereby overdraw the account. In either event, you are responsible for any insufficient funds and overdraft charges that may be imposed, as stated in the FNCU's fee schedule. FNCU reserves the right to refuse to honor payment requests that may reasonably appear to be fraudulent or erroneous.
- g) When an e-Payment is scheduled, an estimated delivery date is given, based on the method of delivery being used to make the payment. All payments should be scheduled to allow 1 additional day beyond the estimated delivery date for the payee to post the payment. You are responsible for any charge that may be imposed as a result of your failure to allow for additional day. The Bill Pay Service or FNCU is not responsible for late charges, finance charges, interest, indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages related to the late payment.
- h) Bill Pay Service may be used to authorize automatic recurring e-Payments of repetitive bills. You may schedule recurring payments to be automatically initiated for a fixed amount on a weekly, biweekly, monthly, or quarterly. The day on which the payment is to be sent is referred to as the "Date/Recurrence." If the payment date/recurrence is scheduled for a non-business day, it will be processed on the previous business day.

Stopping Bill Payments or E-Payments

The following steps may be taken to delete or stop pending Bill Payments or e-Payments:

i) Deleting Payments.

If you have scheduled a Bill Payment OR e-Payment and would like to cancel the payment, you must do so before the payment is processed. The time varies based on the settlement method being used for the payment. If you cannot access the on-line banking service to request that the payment be deleted, please contact us for further assistance, prior to the cut-off time.

j) Liability for Failure to Delete a Payment.

You cannot delete or cancel a payment after it has been processed. FNCU is liable, only if you notify FNCU at least one (1) business day or more before the scheduled payment date. Otherwise, FNCU is not responsible for any indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages, except to the extent such limitation of liability is not permitted by law.

k) Stopping Payments.

Once the on-line payment has been processed, you CANNOT delete or stop Bill Payments settled electronically, or e-Payments. You may be able to stop a Bill Payment only if it has been paid by paper check. To stop an on-line paper payment, contact FNCU. Only FNCU will be able to stop the on-line check payment if the paper check has not cleared and is able to process the stop payment request before the check clears. To be effective, this type of stop payment request must precisely identify the name of the Payee, the Payee-assigned account number, payment amount and date you scheduled the payment to be processed. If you call, FNCU will also require you to put your request in writing and get it to FNCU within fourteen (14) calendar days after you call. FNCU will charge your account our regular fee for each stop payment order you give. FNCU will not be responsible for failing to act on a stop payment if you do not give FNCU the correct Payee information or if FNCU does not have a reasonable opportunity to process the stop payment order.

l) Bill Pay Returned Payments

In using the Bill Pay Service, you understand that the Bill Pay Service and/or the United States Postal Service may return payments for various reasons, such as, but not limited to, the Bill Pay Service account number is not valid; the Bill Pay Service is unable to locate account; or Payee account is paid in full. You are liable for all transactions you make or that you authorize another person to make even if that person exceeds his or her authority. If you want to terminate another person's authority, you must notify us and arrange to change your password and/or reset your challenge question answers. You will be responsible for any Bill Payment request you make that contains an error or is a duplicate of another Bill Payment. FNCU is not responsible for a Bill Payment that is not made if you did not properly follow the instructions for making a Bill Payment. It is the responsibility of the Sender and Recipient of funds to provide accurate information. You agree that you as Sender are authorized to withdraw or as Recipient are authorized to deposit funds into the Accounts whose numbers you provide or into the Accounts associated with the card number you are providing. You authorize FNCU, directly or through third parties, to make any inquiries considered necessary to validate your identity. This may include asking you for further information, requiring you to take steps to confirm ownership of your email address or financial instruments, ordering a credit report and verifying your information against third party databases or through other sources.

You authorize FNCU to debit your account to complete the Transfer you request. If you are receiving funds, you authorize the crediting of your account using card networks or NACHA

You are further authorizing any Recipient of this message to act on the instructions to receive the funds you are sending. You acknowledge that any party receiving the email message at the email address you provide or text message at the mobile phone number you provide may obtain the funds you are sending.

You acknowledge and agree that we are not responsible for determining the identity of the party who receives the email or text message and acts upon the email or text message you provide. The funds that are credited to the account cannot be recalled by us. If you suspect that you have entered information incorrectly, call us immediately and we may be able to cancel the Transfer. We have no obligation to cancel the Transfer or to reimburse funds that were transferred according to the Sender's instructions. Furthermore, we may reject any Transfer request and may terminate your use of this P2P Service for any reason including attempting insufficient funded Transfers.

f) Recipient Acknowledgment

By using this Service, you as the Recipient are confirming that you are the person to whom the Sender intends to transfer funds. As the Recipient, you will be asked to provide your debit card information that will be used to transfer funds to your Account. If you choose not to provide your debit card information or your institution does not participate, you will be asked to provide account information including account number and routing information for your financial institution. In this case the funds will be transferred through the Automated Clearing House.

It is important that you enter accurate information. You agree that FNCU, the receiving financial institution and our P2P Service Provider may rely solely on the instructions you provide. If you enter inaccurate cardholder or account number information the funds may be deposited into another person's account. You acknowledge that the financial institution may make the deposit based on the account number or card number you provide even if those numbers do not correlate to the name that you provide. Retrieval of these funds will be the Recipient's responsibility to work with the financial institution to which the funds were sent. You may lose all the funds that were transferred. The funds that are credited to the account cannot be recalled by us.

If you suspect that you have entered information incorrectly or that you have received funds in error, call us immediately and we may attempt to cancel the transaction. We have no obligation to cancel the Transfer or to reimburse funds that were transferred according to the Recipient's instructions.

By using this P2P Service, you agree that you are the intended recipient of the email or text message and that you are the intended recipient of the funds. If you are not the person to whom the funds are intended, then you agree to take no further action. You understand that it is a federal felony to use another person's identification with the intent to commit unlawful activity. You represent that the information you are providing is your true and correct information. If any information you provide is fraudulent, FNCU reserves the right to recover all costs or losses from you, regardless of whether such costs or losses are incurred directly or indirectly.

g) Fees and Limitations on Transfers

You may transfer up to $250.00 per transaction. FNCU may establish a limit on the number of Transfers and on the total dollar amount of Transfers that can be attempted or completed in one day. You may send multiple Transfers each day; a separate fee is charged for each Transfer you send. We may modify the amount and frequency of Transfers at any time for security reasons or due to account activity.

Funds may be transferred from the account from which the debit card is authorized to transfer funds. Such transfers may overdraw your account and may result in a transfer from another account to cover the overdraft. In any of these situations, a transfer fee will be charged, as applicable. You may be denied service for insufficient funds in your account. You will be responsible for any other transaction fees that apply to your Account.

Please note that your mobile carrier may charge you for text messaging. Please check your mobile service agreement for details on applicable fees. The receiving institution may have limits on the number and type of Transfers allowed. Your financial institution may also charge a transaction fee.

h) Timing of Transfers

Transfers to remove the funds from the Sender's Account may take place immediately. However, the timing of funds received will depend on when the Recipient responds to the email and when their financial institution posts the Transfer. The posting of the Transfer is dependent on the business days of that institution.

i) Issues Affecting the Posting of Transfers

You authorize us to debit your account to complete the Transfer you request. If you are receiving funds, you authorize FNCU to credit your Account using card networks/switches or NACHA.

Other events may affect the timing or success of a Transfer reaching the intended Recipient. Such events may include, but are not limited to, errors made by the Sender or Recipient in entering information, inaccurate account or card number information, delays in posting by the receiving institution, acts of God, and network and NACHA interruptions. If we believe the Transfer may be illegal, we may decline or reverse the Transfer. The receiving institution may choose not to post the Transfer or to delay posting the Transfer. Neither FNCU nor the P2P Service Provider is responsible for any delays in the Transfer of funds or the posting of funds to the Recipient's Account. You may have certain rights and responsibilities regarding the failure to timely post transactions and you are encouraged to pursue dispute resolution with the receiving financial institution.

Financial institutions have rules and regulations that govern their accounts. Some of these regulations may not allow a POS or ACH transfer of funds. You are responsible for ensuring that these types of Transfers are allowed for the Account that you specify. For example, an IRA may not allow electronic transfers directly into the Account. We are not responsible for any action or lack of action taken by the financial institution that delays, inhibits, or prevents the posting of the Transfer to the Account.

j) Security

The Sender and Recipient of funds may choose to register for this P2P Service to simplify their future use of the P2P Service. They will be asked to create a username and password and you are responsible for keeping them secure. We will not ask you for your password.

If the financial institution contacts us or our P2P Service Provider for information regarding your Account, you authorize us to discuss the Transfer and the account information you have provided.

k) Cookies, Browser Information and Related Issues

When you visit the Site, the P2P Service Provider may receive certain standard information that your browser sends to every website you visit, such as the originating IP address, browser type and language, access times and referring website addresses, and other information. This data may be used, among other uses, to improve the operation of the Site and to improve the security of the Site and P2P Service by assisting in "authenticating" who you are when you access the Site or Service, particularly if you register for the P2P Service and are issued or create a username and password.

The P2P Service Provider may also receive additional information about your visit to the Site, including the pages you view, the links you click and other actions you take in connection with the Site and the P2P Service. The Site uses cookies to store your preferences and other information on your computer in order to save you time by eliminating the need to repeatedly enter the same information and to display your personalized content on your later visits to the Site. These cookies are linked to personal information about you, such as your email address. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. However, if you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to sign in or use other interactive features of the Site that depend on cookies.

You may encounter the P2P Service Provider's cookies or pixel tags on websites that we do not control. For example, if you view a web page created by a third party or use an application developed by a third party, there may be a cookie or pixel tag placed by the web page or application.

l) Access to Information about You

You may review and update the personal information maintained about you in the "Manage Account" section of the Site at any time to ensure that it is accurate.

Once you close your Accounts with FNCU or you no longer have a debit card, you may no longer send Transfers. However, your Account information will be maintained for a retention period to accommodate any residual issues that may arise.
